

MOBILE MARKET

Vision Statement

The Mobile Market brings healthy, affordable food to Metro Milwaukee neighborhoods that are underserved by traditional grocery stores. Local community organizations partner in the Mobile Market's mission to eliminate food security barriers by helping families take control of their diets and promote healthy food choices.

What is SHARE Mobile Market?

Mobile Market is a mobile food sale service that brings high quality, healthy foods at affordable prices to Metro Milwaukee neighborhoods. With Mobile Market, families can save 30-50% on food compared to retail prices.

Who is Mobile Market for?

Everyone is welcome to shop at Mobile Market food sales. There are no income guidelines, membership fees or eligibility requirements.

Where and when are the Mobile Market sales?

Metro Milwaukee community-based partner organizations provide locations for Mobile Market sales, typically held once per month at each location. Call 800-548-2124 or visit www.sharewi.org to find the next SHARE Mobile Market sale in your area.

What food does Mobile Market offer?

Mobile Market provides a wide selection of quality, healthy products such as frozen meats, fresh fruits and vegetables and dried goods. Pick and choose the items you want, as well as the quantity—just like at the supermarket!

How do I pay?

Pay at the time of purchase—there are no pre-order requirements. SHARE Mobile Market accepts cash, credit/debit and Quest/Link cards. No personal checks, please. There is no minimum purchase requirement.

Is volunteer time required?

SHARE Mobile Market has no volunteer requirements in order to purchase food. However, volunteers are welcome to join in the Mobile Market's mission.

How do I find out more?

For general information, call toll-free 800-548-2124, visit www.sharewi.org or email info@sharewi.org. For details on bringing Mobile Market to your community, contact Mobile Market Community Liaison Antonio Butts at 800-548-2124 or abutts@sharewi.org.